

New Store :: New Company NEW GOODS

Spring Suits, Coats, Dresses, Skirts, Waists, Gloves, Silk and Muslin Underwear, Hosiery, and Millinery For Ladies and Misses. Our aim will be

To Sell the Best Quality For Less Money

When in Nashville, come to our store and make yourself at home. Check your packages free of charge. A free telephone at your service. It will pay you to make our store your headquarters. Mail orders have our personal attention.

The Goldberg Co.
(INCORPORATED)
412-414 Union Street, NASHVILLE, TENN.

DIXON SPRINGS.

Herman White has returned from Nashville. Mrs. Myra D. Hale of Oliver visited here last week. Rudolph Miller of Clarksville was here last week. Tom Harrison has returned to Cedar Bluff. Miss Margaret Ligon and Lucy Swope of Carthage spent the weekend with Miss Neil Alexander. Holland Alexander has been too ill to attend school at Carthage this week but is improving and will probably be able to re-enter school Monday. Docia Merryman, now living in Nashville, is in St. Thomas Hospital convalescing from serious illness.

Elwood Cox and Miss Charlotte Worman were recently married in St. Louis. Mr. Cox is well known here where he used to visit relatives. He is now, and has been for several years, connected with one of the largest wholesale millinery establishments in St. Louis. We offer heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Cox.

D. Rollins and Miss Julia Mai Hodges were married last Sunday. Justice Simon Highers officiating. Mr. Rollins is a thrifty young farmer, and his bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. John Pope of Enoch, is one of the fairest and most capable young ladies in all of Smith county.

The news of the death of Miss Bessie Day at her home in Carthage last Sunday was received here with universal sorrow. She was loved by all our people for the many excellent graces that she possessed in a rare measure.

SULLIVAN'S BEND.

We are having a few days of sunshine and the farmers are making good use of them. Mrs.

Arthur Rogers is quite sick at this writing. Henry Grisham sold a nice buggy horse to Andrew Ford for $195. R. D. Overstreet was here Saturday buying corn. Rev. L. B. Dickens of Maggart who has been confined to his room for some time on account of serious illness is not expected to recover. J. B. Overstreet of Macon county is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Frank Henry. Mrs. John Russell is confined to her room this week with lagrippe. L. R. Boulton purchased a colt from Roosevelt Overstreet, paying $70. S. N. Thackston was in Nashville the past week.

ELMWOOD.

Miss Oda Boze is visiting relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Askew and children are spending a few days with relatives here. Ed Clouse of Monterey was here Sunday. Prof. Huffins, county superintendent, was here last week. T. K. Ford was in Gordonsville last week.

Grant.

D. E. Seay was in Lebanon Monday. Miss Ova Tyree of Rock City is visiting Miss Dora McClanahan. Hoyal Johnson of Lebanon spent the weekend here. H. C. Barbee and Will Tuggle were in Watertown last week. Miss Mary Lou and Barney White of Taylorsville are visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Gore. Miss Fannie Louis Gill has returned to New Middleton after visiting her parents here. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Marie Gill, for a few days' visit. M. M. Gore is ill at his home here. Miss Dora McClanahan entertained a few of her friends Saturday evening. Misses Louis and Marie Gill and Messrs. W. S. Tuggle and Hoyal Johnson attended services at Bethlehem Sunday.

Sanitary Meat Market

Everything in Our House is Kept Clean and Fresh.

We recently established a meat market in Carthage and judging from the liberal patronage we are receiving convinces us that we have filled a long felt want in Carthage in this respect. Our line of beef roasts and steaks, pork, fish, etc., is handled in the most sanitary way, and we are prepared to fill your orders promptly. We have both telephones and all you have to do is to call us and let your wants in meats be made known. All orders will be delivered at your home. We thank you very kindly for past patronage and solicit a continuance of same. Prices always reasonable.

Muirhead & Ross.
Mail Orders Solicited. Carthage, Tennessee.

Social and Personal Notes

Clay Groves of Defeated was in Carthage last Saturday.

B. A. Winkler and W. T. Gregory of Pleasant Shade were in Carthage transacting business Monday. While here Mr. Winkler qualified as administrator of the estate of his mother, Mrs. S. E. Winkler, who died a few weeks ago.

W. O. Stephens, cashier of the Bank of Pleasant Shade, was in Carthage Monday. Also R. H. Cleveland and H. M. Alexander of that little city were here Monday.

Dan Hunt of Hogan's Creek was in Carthage Monday on business.

D. O. Hailey, formerly of Donoho but who recently moved to Wilson county in order to get the benefit of good roads, was in Carthage Tuesday attending the tobacco sale. While here Mr. Hailey reported that a fine boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Benton Lowe of Donoho last Monday.

A fine ten-pound daughter was born to Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Smotherman last Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Fisher spent first of the week in Nashville.

Sam Pickering and two little sons went to Nashville last Saturday to attend the funeral and burial of Mrs. Yount. They, accompanied by Mrs. Pickering, returned to Carthage Tuesday.

M. A. Martin, the popular representative of the Hooper Grocery Co., was in Carthage Monday taking a lot of nice orders for his house.

J. C. Burris, district manager of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., with headquarters at Lebanon, returned to his home Monday after spending a few days in Smith county. While here Mr. Burris appointed Robt. McCormick of Pleasant Shade as one of his agents for this county. Mr. McCormick will have charge of the territory on the north side of the river.

Mrs. J. M. Gardenhire left Tuesday morning for Magnolia, Miss., where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Smith, for two weeks.

Miss Georgia Smith who is teaching school at Devil's Elbow spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

R. A. Waggoner of Rewoda was in Carthage Monday attending to business matters. Mr. Waggoner is one of Smith county's most industrious and prosperous young business men and is making a success of his general merchandise business which has developed into one of the largest in the county. Last summer Mr. Waggoner displayed some of his good business judgement by purchasing several thousand bushels of wheat at 70 and 75 cents per bushel and selling same a few weeks ago at the sky-high prices, receiving have profits for his adventure.

Mat Lancaster, Vice President of the 10th Street Tobacco Warehouse of Louisville, Ky., was in Carthage first of the week and in speaking of the management of the loose leaf house at this place said that they did more than other houses to accommodate those who brought their tobacco here. He also said that they graded the tobacco well and that a loose leaf house in a community was a good thing for the farmers. Mr. Lancaster speaks advisedly on the subject, he having been in the tobacco business for some thirty years and visited loose leaf houses in almost every section.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Nixon and little daughter of Knoxville spent a few days here this week with Mr. Nixon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Nixon.

J. M. Cox was in Nashville the week end.

Dr. W. T. Drake was in Nashville Wednesday on business. Messrs. W. H. and J. B. Mathews of Defeated, L. B. Smith of Difficult, G. W. McGee of Route 2, R. L. Vanderpool, Mack Vaden and Louis Lowman of Stonewall were in Carthage Tuesday on business.

Miss Carrie Williams has returned from a two weeks, visit to relatives in Jackson county.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Whited and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Culbreath of near Rome were in Carthage Wednesday.

County Court Clerk J. A. Kemp spent two days at Difficult this week with his brother, Henry Kemp, who is in bad health.

Mrs. Gettie Munday and family have moved into the home just vacated by R. N. Horton. Mrs. Munday bought this place from Mr. Horton.

Mrs. L. D. West of West Point was here first of the week as the guest of her two daughters and Miss Beulah West. Mrs. West's daughters are attending school here and are boarding in the home of Miss Beulah West.

Ernest Cooksey, member of the firm of B. D. Cooksey & Son of Rome, was attending to business in Carthage Wednesday.

C. W. Payne of Jackson, Miss., who has been spending several weeks at his old home at Kempville, was here Tuesday on his return to his Mississippi home. Mr. Payne has been connected with the Chess-Wymond Co., but has recently gone into the veneering business for himself.

R. L. Booker, the "fur man" of Elmwood, was here today.

Adison Bilbrey of Livingston is here assisting H. L. Eckles in the management of the Bilbrey-Welch spoke factory.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Fisher were in Nashville first of the week.

Mrs. C. R. McClarin was in Nashville last week.

Mrs. W. E. Myer and daughter, Miss Annie Lee, are visiting friends in Lebanon.

Mrs. Roy Samson is in Hartsville to spend a few days with relatives.

"Aunt" Polly Williams returned today to her home in Gainesboro after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Robinson.

SOUTH CARTHAGE.

Rev. T. H. Hinson filled his regular appointment here Sunday. Our Sunday school is flourishing nicely. There was a number of visitors at the school Sunday. The Bilbrey-Welch Spoke factory has resumed operation after an idleness of several months. There is a full force of skilled workmen on the job, eleven of whom came from Livingston factory. W. M. Garrett has recently had his gristmill overhauled and repaired and is now in position to give the public better service than heretofore. Millard and Perry Moredock have returned to our little village, much to the gratification of their many friends. Mrs. Melvin Gibbs is very sick at this writing. We are please to note that Mrs. Charlie Boston is able to be out again after a severe attack of lagrippe. Dallas Lynch of Nashville made a flying trip to South Carthage last week.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS
DIAMOND BRAND
LADIES!
Ask your Druggist for CHICHESTER'S PILLS
DIAMOND BRAND PILLS in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. TAKE NO OTHER. Buy of your Druggist and ask for CHICHESTER'S PILLS. DIAMOND BRAND PILLS for twenty-five years registered as Best, Safest, Always Reliable.
SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

Don't Pay a Profit!

On That Spring Suit of Clothes or That Cooking Stove!

Come to my store and get it at Actual Cost. I Will Tell You How.

Money Saved Is Money Made.

A. L. WEST

The Grocery Man.

Will also Give You a Nice Piece of Chinaware FREE!

New Middleton

Prof. O. A. Oakley of Grant was here last Saturday. Misses Elsie and Eva Courtney of Bluff Creek have been visiting here. John Yeaman who was born and reared here and who went to Nashville when quite young where he has since gained much prominence by his undanted bravery as fireman, his faithful services as policeman, and who is now serving as U. S. marshal, detective for Middle Tennessee, has been visiting friends here. Miss Carrie Harel of Bluff Creek has been here. Bill Tuggle of Grant was here last week. J. P. Ward of Grant was here. Rev. and Mrs. Farris of Gordonsville were here the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McCathern and Mr. and Mrs. Dorris McClanahan of Watertown, visited Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Young the weekend. Bob Preston of Nashville was here Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cheek were at Grant last week. Earnest Baird has gone to Monterey to live. R. B. Gill was at Brush Creek recently. Chas. Gill was at Gordonsville Saturday. J. L. Bass was at Bluff Creek Sunday. Prof. H. J. Corlew was at Gordonsville Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gill will move to Brush Creek soon. Misses Sallie Squires and Florence Smith spent the week end at Carthage. Drs. Williams and Boze have discovered a case of scarlet fever near town. On account of scarlet fever scare, the school at this place has suspended for one week.

McCLURE'S BEND.

We are having some very pretty weather now. W. D. Wright has been on the sick list for a few days but is improving now. John W. Hines bought a nice bunch of hogs from F. T. Johnson and Jim Powell Saturday. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Andrews died last Monday. Burial took place at the Robinson graveyard, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. E. L. Robinson. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wright spent Sunday with W. D. Wright. Tom Holleman and wife visited Jim Robinson and family recently. Misses Ollie and Ima Wright were recent guests of Miss Vallie Johnson. Miss Julia Wright has been visiting Miss Eula Petty. Mrs. Jim Knight was a recent visitor to her sister, Miss Lou Shoemaker. Felix Robinson of Hartsville has been visiting friends and relatives here this week. Master Allison Ballenger entertained a number of his little friends with a birthday party last Monday. A nice dinner was served and many presents received. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Powell have been at the bedside of her father, L. B. Dickens, near Maggart. Stanton Powell was in Kempville Sunday. J. T. Russell had an old time corn shucking last Thursday. There were 32 men present.

Carthage Junction.

The farmers are glad to see this fair weather so they can work. Miss Margaret Brown has returned home after a long visit with her aunt at Nashville. Mrs. S. Stewart spent several days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Lancaster, at Lancaster. Mrs. Mary Preston is very sick at this writing. George Alcorn and family are visiting relatives at Buffalo Valley. Sidney and A. D. Stewart spent Sunday with Frank Sullivan. Campbell and Minnie Butts spent last Saturday with their cousins, Roy and Willie Stewart. Robert Jones spent Saturday night with his grand parents. Mrs. Sam Nixon still continues worse. A. J. Sullivan loaded three cars of corn this week. Mark Brown is visiting at Double Springs. Verden Wright is visiting his aunt, Miss Pearl Brown, at this place.

RUSSELL HILL.

We have had some more rainy weather. The farmers are nearly done stripping tobacco. E. C. Goad of near here sold a tract of land of about 12 acres to T. J. Thomas, Jr. Several from here went to the mule sale at Carthage last Wednesday—there was nothing doing from this place. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jenkins visited friends at Pleasant Shade last week. Harrah for Thomas C. Rye if he will keep pushing the liquor traffic and the Ouster law. Rev. G. W. Ramsey filed his appointment Saturday and Sunday at this place. D. A. Carver is going to begin Mrs. Davis' dwelling Monday if the weather permits.

HORSESHOE BEND.

We are very sorry to report that the death angel has again visited our community and claimed for its victim Mrs. Lotie Petross. She died Wednesday night, Feb. 3, and is survived by four children and several grand-children. The bereaved have the sympathy of the community.

We are glad to see the bright sunshine again. Bob Bennett, Sid Petross, Joe Knight, John Robinson and Vance Petross boarded the Steamer Harley for Nashville where they will sell their hogs. George and James Farley have moved to the Bend and we are glad to have them. The school is progressing nicely under the management of Dewitt Petross. Miss Mattie Cowan of McClure's Bend has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Vance Petross. Benton Gann and family visited Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bennett last week. Mrs. Jim Farmer visited Mrs. Sid Knight Sunday. Miss Daisy Hensley was the guest of Miss Laura Green recently. Miss Orelia Petross visited her parents last week and returned to Carthage on the boat to enter school again. Miss Effie Grisham was the guest of Misses Sadie and Gaynell Bennett recently.

White Wyandottes. S. C. White Leghorns.
Bred to lay. Eggs for sale from stock with records of 200 250 eggs. Price $2.00 per 13. Settings are limited. Write me today. E. McCULLOCH, Gallatin, Tenn.